OPEN MEETING

13 January 2026

7.30pm Snape Village Hall

Richard Negus: Suffolk conservationist & hedge layer

Richard Negus is a former soldier and horseman. He is now a professional hedgelay, conservationist, and author. His writing champions the people, work, wildlife and beauty of the countryside.

Richard is recognised as one of the country's leading exponents and practitioners in rotational hedgerow management and rejuvenation.

His book “Words from the Hedge” is a passionate evocation of the history, beauty and importance of our hedgerows by a craftsman who has been laying hedges for almost three decades and has the scars to prove it.

Join us to hear Richard’s fascinating talk.
